JANUARY.

- 1 (New Year's Day.) WE see certainly that the Lord is with thee. Gen. 26. 28.

And with Jesus Christ we move,—to meet joys unceasing.

- 2 Arise and go thou and thine household, and sojourn wheresoever thou canst sojourn. 2 Kings 8. 1.

Devoutly and loving,—to Jesu's blood's honour,— we onward are moving.

- 3 I have caused thee to rest from thine enemies.
2 Sam. 7. 11.

We but Him look to,—what good he'll us do.

- * 4 He hath made with me an everlasting covenant, *
- ordered in all things and sure. 2 Sam. 23. 5.

Ourselves we therefore anew give up—to the election's whole aim and scope.

Week II. S. aft. New-Year.

- 5 Touch not mine anointed, and do my prophets
no harm. 1 Chron. 16. 22.

Thou bidd'st thy angels sing—and say,—that these shall undisturb'd abide.

Jan.

- 6 (Epiphany.) Ask now of the days that are past, which were before thee, whether there hath been any such thing as this great thing is, or hath been heard like it? Deut. 4. 32.

Ye cross's booties, bear ye—thro' all the earth the story—of Jesu's smart and dying love.

- 7 The Lord will fight for you, and ye shall hold your peace. Exod. 14. 14.

Leave to Him, blest congregation,—o'er thee the direction's staff.

- 8 They saw God, and did eat and drink. Exod.
24. 11.

For the gracious Lord, by token,—had them as His guests bespoken.

- 9 The seed of the woman shall bruise the ser-pent's head. Gen. 3. 15.

Lord Jesu Christ, all praise to thee,—that thou vouchsaf'st a Man to be.

- 10 Jonathan and David made a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul. 1 Sam. 18. 3.

We b'lieve, the going two together,—has blessing till this very day.

- 11 Let thine eyes be open towards this house night =and day, even toward the place of which thou hast said, My name shall be there. 1 Kings 8. 29.

Let grace enthron'd there sit,—unfeign'd—simplicity of mind.

Week III. 1 S. aft. Epiph.

- 12 Fear not, for I am with thee. Gen. 26. 24.

No foreign life distress you,—with Him in his cool grave.

- 13 If I have found grace in thy sight, shew me now thy way, that I may know thee. Exod. 33. 13.

Increase our faith, our mind prepare,—that we may know thy Name quite clear.

14 Let

Jan.

- 14 Set yourselves, stand ye still, and see the salvation of the Lord with you. 2 Chron. 20. 17.

Lord Jesus, be thou prais'd eternally ;—if there no Jesus was, what should we be !

- 15 The Lord shall establish thee an holy people unto himself, as he hath sworn unto thee, and all people of the earth shall see that thou art called by the name of the Lord. Deut. 28. 9, 10.

Unto thy wounds glory—make Thou us always.

- 16 Lord our God, send us good speed [meet us] this day. Gen. 24. 12.

Each day, at least in Spirit,—one interview we'd get.

- 17 Let there be no strife, I pray thee, between me and thee, and between my herdmen and thy herdmen ; for we be brethren. Gen. 13. 8.

And God hath us, before—all worlds, for love designed.

- 18 Ask what I shall give thee. 1 Kings 3. 5.

O my Lord most faithful,—give me what thou'st merited,—I'm for more not careful.

Week IV. 2 S. aft. Epiph.

- 19 Thou hast avouched the Lord this Day to be thy God ; and the Lord hath avouched thee this day to be his peculiar people. Deut. 26. 17, 18.

Remain thou only our kind Lord,—so will we farther serve thee,—and joy to thee afford.

- 20 Moses brought forth the people out of the camp to meet with God. Exod. 19. 17.

Haste to give our Bridegroom meeting,—as is for betroth'd-ones fitting.

- 21 I am one of them that are peaceable and faithful in Israel. 2 Sam. 20. 19.

The congregation's happy course,—O let nought interrupt it.

Jan.

- 22 If the Lord were pleased to kill us, he would not have shewed us all these things, nor would have told us such things as these. Judg. 13. 23.

Not one of us doth doubt, but He—in love doth us remember.

- 23 A cloud covered the tent of the congregation, and the glory of the Lord filled the tabernacle. Exod. 40. 34.

And His eye still friendly the congregations,—far, near, great or small, by sweet sensations,—lets feel his heart.

- 24 My heart is toward the governors of Israel, that offered themselves willingly among the people. Judg. 5. 9.

Sanctify them in thy truth,—because Thou hast sent them.

- 25 Turn not to the right hand or to the left, that thou mayst do wisely whithersoever thou goest. Josh. 1. 7.

We only Thee all times intreat,—to feel thy peace so kind,—and beg a constant presence meet—of spirit and of mind.

Week V. Septuages.

- 26 Jacob blessed Pharaoh. Gen. 47. 7.

Jesu, to thee we commend—the souls of our princes.

- 27 Lord, it is nothing with thee to help, whether with many, or with them that have no power. 2 Chron. 14. 11.

Thy flock commits itself to thy hands faithful.

- 28 Be strong and of a good courage, fear not nor be afraid of them: for the Lord thy God, he it is that

that doth go with thee, he will not fail thee nor forsake thee. Deut. 31. 6.

In the Lord's joy one goes one's way,—makes nought but blessed work alway.

29 In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread. Gen. 3. 19.

Thy dear countenance's sweat,—thro' our hearts diffuse its heat.

30 I will perform my word with thee, and I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will not forsake my people Israel. 1 Kings 6. 12, 13.

Now will we with gladness—see what Thou wilt do.

31 My Lord, if now I have found favour in thy sight, pass not away, I pray thee, from thy servant. Gen. 18. 3.

Let me, at thy feet abased,—be to taste thy friendship raised.

F E B R U A R Y.

1 THE Lord shall do this thing. Exod. 9. 4, 5. (Deut. 4. 32, &c.)

thy people Israel, but cometh out of a far country for thy name's sake; do thou according to all that the stranger calleth to thee for. 1 Kings 8. 41, 43.

Det.

Thou not more truly for the race—of children gather'd in one place—didst die, than for God's children dear—dispers'd on earth's face ev'ry where.

- 3 By the God of thy father thou art helped, and by the Almighty thou art blessed. Gen. 49. 25.

At His throne adore him,—be to him faithful and true.

- 4 My doctrine shall drop as the rain, my speech shall distil as the dew, as the small rain upon the tender herb, and as the showers upon the grass.
Deut. 32. 2.

Let our call pierce thro' ev'ry heart and ear,—and when we point to thee, do thou appear.

Week XLI. 19 S. aft. Trin.

- 5 Who is like unto thee, O Lord, amongst the gods? who is like unto thee, glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders? Exod. 15. 11.

And didst become a man like me,—and art so mild and loving.

- 6 Let me find favour in thy sight, my Lord, for that thou hast comforted me, and for that thou hast spoken friendly unto thine handmaid. Ruth 2. 13.

For the rest, what has been signified in the Preface to the Watchwords of the Year 1763, is to be observed also here.

1. The first part of the book is devoted to a general introduction to the subject of the history of the United States. It discusses the various factors which have influenced the development of the country, and the role of the individual states in the formation of the Union.

2. The second part of the book is devoted to a detailed account of the various events which have shaped the history of the United States. It covers the period from the first settlement of the continent to the present day, and discusses the various wars, revolutions, and other events which have influenced the course of the country's development.

3. The third part of the book is devoted to a discussion of the various political and social movements which have influenced the development of the United States. It covers the period from the early years of the Republic to the present day, and discusses the various movements which have shaped the course of the country's development.

4. The fourth part of the book is devoted to a discussion of the various cultural and intellectual movements which have influenced the development of the United States. It covers the period from the early years of the Republic to the present day, and discusses the various movements which have shaped the course of the country's development.
